

Anglo American Dental Conference:

Social and medical influences on dentistry 18th -20th century

A conference organised by the Lindsay Society for the History of Dentistry in conjunction with the American Academy of the History of Dentistry.

Two dental associations with the aim of recording and promoting our mutual heritage

Saturday and Sunday 8-9th October 2016

FRIDAY EVENING RECEPTION

Reception at the Hunterian Museum at the Royal College of Surgeons on Friday 7th October from 6-8pm

An opportunity to explore this fabulous collection with the Honorary Curator. The John Hunter and the Odontological Collections are some of the oldest anatomical collections in the world, documenting 400 years of medical history. Enjoy wine and canapés in the magnificent surroundings of the Royal College of Surgeons, Lincoln's Inn Fields WC2A 3PE.

The cost of the reception is included in the conference delegate rate. However, guests are welcome to attend for the fee of £35.00 per person. It will not be possible to attend without prior booking and payment.

CONFERENCE

Saturday 8th – Sunday 9th Oct 2016 from 9am - 4pm

British Dental Association 64 Wimpole Street. London W1G 8YS

During the conference there will be ample opportunity to explore the BDA Museum and the BDA Library.

Situated at the heart of London's medical quarter, the British Dental Association is the professional association and trade union for dentists in the UK. Founded in 1880 by leading dental reformer Sir John Tomes, the BDA continues to provide collective representation, effective lobbying and championing higher standards for dentists and the nation's oral health.

The BDA Library houses an extensive collection of rare books dating from the 16th century collected by the dental historian, Lilian Lindsay. A librarian will be on hand on Saturday 8th to show you examples from the collection.

The BDA Museum holds the largest collection of dental heritage in the UK. Explore how human teeth were attached to ivory dentures, the development of dental services for the armed forces during the First World War and the oral health of London's past in our temporary exhibitions around the building.

Optional outing to the London Eye on a RouteMaster Bus on Sat 8th Oct 4.45pm -7pm

Travel on an iconic RouteMaster Bus across London to the 'London Eye'. Enjoy breath taking views of London from this giant Ferris Wheel on the Southbank of the Thames as the sun sets. £35 per person (including return bus travel to the BDA). Book soon as spaces are limited to 75 tickets. Return to the BDA approximately 7pm. There are a number of restaurants on the Southbank and close to the London Eye so guests are welcome to make their own dining arrangements and not return on the bus.

Afternoon Tea Sunday 9th October 3.45pm

At the close of the conference all delegates and their guests are invited to afternoon tea in the BDA reception area. This will be an opportunity to learn how to make the perfect 'cuppa' from tea experts Kusmi Tea. There will be samples of different varieties of tea to try, all served with a delicious traditional cream tea of scones and jam.
